

Nancy Reyner

Painter, author and educator, Nancy Reyner received a BFA from the Rhode Island School of Design, MFA from Columbia University, and currently lives in Santa Fe, New Mexico. Her paintings often bring to mind exotic oceans dissolving in mist, while simultaneously becoming color or "energy fields". These sensual and unusual paintings are fueled by a continual drive to experiment with materials, invent new processes and techniques. From creating costumes and sets for theater and film to coordinating public arts programs for the state of New York, Nancy has had a wide-ranging career in the arts, all of which inform her work. She is a technical consultant for Golden Artist Colors, author of two North Light painting books Acrylic Revolution, and Acrylic Innovation and producer of an instructional painting DVD. www.nancyreyner.com
