

Zoe Wolfe

Ms. Wolfe received her M.F.A. in Sculpture from the University of Hawaii and her B.A. Cum Laude in Art and Theater from San Francisco State University. She also has her Teaching Certification in Art for grades K-12 in New York, California and New Mexico. Ms. Wolfe has been Adjunct Assistant Professor at WNMU for multiple courses since 1994, including elementary and Secondary Art Methods, Drawing, Color, Design, Clay and Sculpture with Found Objects. Her work has been featured in numerous Exhibitions from New Mexico to Thailand and Nepal. Wolfe has acted as lead artist on two MRAC Youth Murals and assistant artist on two others. Click for more.

